

Register of Interests

CRC Board of Trustees

Name: Iben Axén

I am required to complete and annually update a declaration of interests form to register my financial and other interests that could potentially conflict with my CRC role above. I must also ensure that any significant changes are notified to the CRC immediately. I have provided an up-to-date list of my interests below.

These include:

- direct financial interests
- indirect financial interests which relate closely to CRC activity
- non-financial interests
- interests of those close to me –any financial and non-financial interests of close family members¹ and people living with me that could be thought of as relevant to CRC activity.

I am aware that, in addition to providing this list, I am also required to declare any interests at the start of any CRC meeting where any particular interest conflicts with some or all of the business to be discussed at that meeting. I must also disclose any conflicts that may arise prior or in the course of a CRC Council meeting.

Direct financial interests

Any activity for which I am or have been paid for within the last five years, whether or not the activity relates to the work of the CRC.²

I am employed by the Norwegian Chiropractic Research Foundation, ELIB.
I am working on a grant from AFA Insurance in Sweden.
I receive reimbursements when the Swedish Health and Social Care Inspectorate ask me to review a case.
I receive a honorarium from Springer Nature for working as Editor-in-Chief for Chiropractic and Manual Therapies.

¹ This includes spouses, partners, parents, children (adult and minor) siblings and personal partners of any of these.

² This includes payment by an educational institution, a research body, an association, a company, research grant funding, or other body seeking to contract with you. Chiropractic members should declare any directorships or partnerships in companies or businesses relating to their practice of chiropractic.

Indirect financial interests

Any connections with persons (family members), companies or bodies I have, or have had within the last five years, which have a direct financial interest in the work of the CRC.

None

Non-financial interests

Any unpaid office or roles, membership of or involvement in organisations, associations or other bodies in the last five years which are regulated in any way by the CRC or whose activities could be relevant to the CRC.³

None

Interests of those close to me

Any financial and non-financial interests of close family members⁴ and people living with me that could be thought of as relevant to the work of the CRC, within the last five years.

None

Professional registration

Any professional registrations I hold:

I am a licenced chiropractor in Sweden, although I do no longer work clinically.

³ Chiropractic members must declare any memberships of a chiropractic professional association whether UK based or international. If they or a family member or close associate hold any office in such an association this should also be declared.

⁴ See footnote 1.

Declaration

I declare that to the best of my knowledge, the interests outlined above are all those that may be relevant to my role as a member of the Chiropractic Research Council.

I undertake to notify the Chair of any changes to my declared interests during the forthcoming year.
